Mrs and Mrs. John Mitchell were back at their Watergate apartment yesterday after spending three days together at the Westchester Country Club in Rye, N.Y.

Former Attorney General Mitchell worked a few hours at his office at the Committee to Re-elect the President, but canceled plans to attend last night's reception for Republican candidates given by the GOP Congressional Campaign Committee at the Twin Bridges Marriott Motel.